o's Famed Cliff House

ED 1909
BUILT & OPENED 1896
AND OPENE
63.

San Francisco's three Cliff Houses—at top, the present building; lower left, the first version, built about 75 years ago; lower right, the second, erected in 1896 by Adolph Sutro of Comstock fame.

Top photograph by the San Francisco News.

Actually there have been three Cliff Houses. The first, according to one school of historians, was built by Sam Brannan between 1854 and 1857; another school claims it opened in 1863.

In 1890 that Cliff House met with disaster. One wing was wrecked by a terrific explosion of dynamite on the schooner Parallel, which had blundered onto the rocks nearby. It was rebuilt, but four years later the whole building burned.

The second Cliff House was erected in 1896 by Adolph Sutro of the Comstock fame. It was a large, ornate structure that was a showplace of the city until it, too, was destroyed by fire in 1907.

The Cliff House of the present generation was put up in 1909 and for many years maintained the reputation of its predecessors. The 18th Amendment hit it a hard blow and, although it struggled along for some time after, it closed its doors in 1925.

But it won't be long before "Let's go out to the Cliff House" will again be the popular suggestion.
